Warning Letter Re: FPPC No. 11/1087; Peggy Steadham, Respondent

Dear Ms. Steadham:

The Fair Political Practices Commission (the "FPPC") enforces the provisions of the Political Reform Act (the "Act"),¹ found in Government Code section 81000, et seq. This letter is in response to a referral from the County of San Diego that alleged you failed to file your Annual Statement of Economic Interests (Form 700) by the April 1, 2011 deadline.

We have since learned that you were removed from your position on the Julian Planning Group in February of 2011. Since you are no longer a public official with the County of San Diego we are closing our file on this matter. However, your failure to file a Leaving Office Statement is a violation of the Act. (Gov. Code § 87300.) You must immediately file your delinquent statement of economic interests with the County of San Diego. This letter serves as a written warning. The information in this matter will be retained and may be considered should an enforcement action become necessary based on newly discovered information or future conduct. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act in the future will result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 for each violation.

Although the Enforcement Division is not seeking a penalty in the current matter, you are still responsible for any late filing fees assessed by your filing officer. (Gov. Code § 91013.)

A warning letter is an FPPC case resolution without administrative prosecution or fine. However, the warning letter resolution does not provide you with the opportunity for a probable cause hearing or hearing before an Administrative Law Judge or the Fair Political Practices

Commission. If you wish to avail yourself of these proceedings by requesting that your case proceed with prosecution rather than a warning, please notify us within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Upon this notification, the FPPC will rescind this warning letter and proceed with administrative prosecution of this case. If we do not receive such notification, this warning letter will be posted on the FPPC's website ten (10) days from the date of this letter.

Please feel free to contact Jeanette Turvill at (916) 322-8194 with any questions you may have regarding this letter.

Sincerely,
